

OMUN DELEGATE JUDGING RUBRIC

*Upper Canada College
Ontario Model United Nations Conference*

Criterion	Level 4 (8-10 Marks)	Level 3 (5-7 Marks)	Level 2 (1-4 Marks)	Level 1 (0 Marks)
Appreciation of United Nations structure	Delegate always follows proper UN procedure.	Delegate usually follows proper UN procedure yet requires occasional corrections.	Delegate rarely follows proper UN procedure.	Delegate does not follow proper UN procedure.
Public speaking and debating skills	Delegate speaks perspicuously and with relevant vocabulary. Always finishes within allotted time, and engages well with committee debate.	Delegate speaks well, and often uses relevant vocabulary. Usually finishes within allotted time and engages with committee debate, though can sometimes be off topic.	Delegate speaks informally, rarely uses relevant vocabulary, and is not coherent. The delegate does not engage well with committee debate.	Delegate has not demonstrated speaking or debating abilities.
Knowledge of topics and foreign policy	Delegate presents very pertinent factual information on topics, and is always consistent with foreign policy.	Delegate presents relevant factual information on topics, and is usually consistent with foreign policy.	Delegate presents factual information rarely relevant to topics, and is seldom consistent with foreign policy.	Delegate does not present any factual information, and is not consistent with foreign policy.

Resolution writing and presentation	Resolutions are thoughtful, plausible, and properly formatted. Presentation is insightful.	Resolutions are generally persuasive and reasonable, and contain few formatting errors.	Resolutions are fantastical and impractical, and are not formatted properly. Presentation shows no genuine understanding of resolution.	Did not submit, or help to develop any resolutions during the committee sessions.
Position Paper Writing	The position paper contains relevant background information, an in depth understanding of the delegate's position, and potential solutions.	The position paper contains some background information, delegate policy and a few surface-level solutions, but does not explore any of the subject with appreciable depth.	The position paper does not contain one of the three primary components of a position paper, lacking one or more of the following criterion: background information, delegate position, or potential solutions.	The position paper is improperly written and does not contain relevant information on the committee's topics with little analysis or research on any of a position paper's primary components.
Speaking and Leadership During Unstructured Debate	The delegate always emerges as a clear leader during unstructured debate yet remains diplomatic and respectful of other delegates.	The delegate sometimes appears as a leader during unstructured debate, yet, can sometimes be marginalized during and is not always at the forefront of delegate debate.	The delegate rarely appears impactful during unstructured debate, though does occasionally contribute to delegate discussion.	The delegate does not participate during unstructured debate or acted in a disrespectful manner.
Total	/ 60			