

OMUN II Country Matrix

The checkmarks signify all the countries that are members of each committee that delegates may apply for. The final row of the chart specifies the total number of delegate spots available per committee.

Please note that delegates in Canada's Federal Cabinet, Lyndon B. Johnson's Presidential Cabinet (1963) and the International Consortium of Investigative Journalism represent specific positions within their committee, not represented by member states of the UN. These positions can be viewed below the country matrix.
